Confidence - Dependability

We Say:

"Thank You . . ."

In selling our Restaurant to I. C. Green and J. B. McDaniels, we wish to take this means of thanking our many friends throughout this section for their loyalty and cooperation through the twenty years during which we have been in business in Payette.

We also wish to extend our best wishes to our successors with the hope that they will enjoy the same support which has been our pleasure.

Entertaining, New Year's Eve or New Year's Day

FRIENDS coming to your house, on either of those important dates? Here are some suggestions that may help you plan what to serve them. For a midnight "snack" in the grand manner might include easy-to-prepare items as:

NEW YEAR'S EVE

French Onion Soup
French Bread or Hard Rolls, Toasted
Celery—Pickles
Green and Ripe Olives
Lots of coffee!

Or, if you'd rather serve something more along the breakfast line:

Scrambled Eggs and Bacon
Hashed Brown Potatoes
Toast or Soft Rolls
Jam or Marmalade
Lots of coffee!

And whether it snows or rains or the sun shines cheerfully,

NEW YEAR'S DAY

presents an ideal opportunity for holding an open house, when folks may drop in for a friendly visit. It's nice to have a few little tidbits for their refreshment—such as plenty of:

Sliced Fruit Cake
Nuts—Candy
Coffee or Punch

If your New Year's Day plan calls for a family dinner rather than an open house, let it be built around a hearty meat:

Baked Ham or Meat Loaf
Creamed Onions
Baked White or Sweet Potatoes
Pickled Fruit or Cranberry Sauce
Lettuce Wedges with Favorite Dressing
Orange and Grapefruit Cup
Sliced Fruit Cake—Nuts
Coffee
