Congratulations

To the class of '44, I extend my most sincere congratulations on your graduation. As a class you will soon cease to exist. You are soon to become individuals who will assume your places in the social structure of the community and nation. How well you will perform this important duty may well depend upon how well you have shouldered the duties and responsibilities up until the present time. That you may live a useful and happy life is the sincere wish of your superintendent.
