

FRUITLAND FOLK ARE MARRIED

(Mrs. G. C. McGee, Fruitland corres.)

Miss Ardell Tussing Wed in Oakland

Now on their honeymoon in southern California are Stanley Wm. Kennon ARM 1/c USNR and his bride, the former Ardell Tussing of Fruitland. They will spend several weeks in the south before making their residence in San Diego, where the groom will be stationed after twenty-nine months active duty in the South Pacific.

The bride wore a white wedding gown made of parachute silk, a fingertip veil held in place by a coronet of seed pearls, and carried a bouquet of white orchids, gageas and bouvardia. She wore a strand of cultured pearls, wedding gift of the groom. The bride was escorted to the altar by Franklin Tussing Sp. M 3/c USN, now stationed in San Francisco.

Mrs. Harold Hutchinson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a moire taffeta gown of periwinkle blue, a coronet and veil of pink and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

David Haworth A/c USN, who saw action in the South Pacific with the 6th West Coast, was best man. Harold Hutchinson acted as usher.

A special pipe organ solo of "Indian Love Call" was played. After the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hutchinson.

Schultz-Barker

Miss Edna Louvena Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barker and Tech. Sgt. Joseph J. Schultz, son of Mrs. Martha Schultz of Chicago, Ill., were married Sunday, June 18 at 2:30 o'clock at St. John's Cathedral. The impressive single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Casby in the presence of 75 invited guests.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white satin with short train. The fingertip veil held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pale pink rosebuds, pink carnations and tiny white flowers.

Their only attendants were the bride's sister, Mrs. L. W. Mitchell wearing a floor length gown of blue sheer with silver accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and her brother, Ralph Barker.

The bride's mother, wore a two-piece blue costume with white accessories and a pink and white corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Crystal Ballroom lounge of Hotel Boise decorated with bouquets of pale pink snapdragons. A three-tiered wedding cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom. Mrs. Ethel Alloway and Mrs. George Sullens poured.

Mrs. Schultz graduated from F. H. S. with the class of '37, attended B. B. U. and was employed at Boise and at the Gowen Field and Mountain Home air bases.

Tech. Sgt. Schultz was transferred from Gowen Field to the Aleutians and served there two years. He is now instructor at Lake Charles, La., where they will live after a short visit with his people at Chicago.
