THIRTY YEARS AGO

The following items were taken from the Payette Enterprise dated June 18, 1914:

Dr. Melvin A. Brannon, president of the University of Idaho, accompanied by Dr. Sisson, state educational commissioner, visited Payette Monday and made a trip of inspection to the various storage plants in Payette, Wood Spur and Fruitland.

At the state encampment of the G. A. R. held at Weiser last week, A. H. Bowen of this city was elected Junior Vice Commander.

Hall damage to the apple crop in the Fruitland section last Friday was estimated to almost 50 percent.

Frank Crighton came down from his Big Willow ranch the latter part of last week and reports that most of the crops on the creek are looking pretty good. He has one hundred and twenty-five acres of grain in.

The Payette band has signed up to furnish music at the city of Huntington on July Fourth.

C. W. Thurston returned last Friday from Boise where he had been for three days in attendance of the meeting of the state druggists association.

TEN YEARS AGO

The following items were taken from the Payette Enterprise dated June 21, 1934:

Darrell Terwilliger was called to Portland Tuesday to join a group of students of Ted Bacon, famous violin teacher of that place, to leave at once for Shafter Lake, Cal., to attend the summer camp of the Pacific band, chorus and orchestra with all expenses paid in recognition of his ability and strenuous effort during the past year.

Elsie Gliddings, one of the seven members of the 4-H club from Payette county, attending the 4-H Club Short Course sponsored by the College of Agriculture at the University of Idaho last week, won fourth in the judging contest on canned goods.

The new bakery which will be known as Ben's Bakery under the management of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Farquhar, recent arrivals from Boise, will be formally opened the coming Saturday in the Jacobsen building.

Word was received today that Ted Cheek, one of the cooks at the encampment of the Idaho National Guard at Boise was awarded first prize for having his kitchen in the cleanest condition of any in the camp.

The following items were taken from the Payette Enterprise dated June 19, 1924:

The Kiwanis club luncheon, last Tuesday, was one of greater interest to Payette than any held for sometime. There was present on this occasion, Mr. E. C. Van Petten, of Ontario, who only recently returned from Washington, D. C., where he spent several weeks in trying to induce congress to pass the bill which would have assured the success of the great Owyhee Irrigation project.

Miss Bertha Glendeman of Coeur d'Alene, president of the Delta Gammas at the University of Idaho, is here visiting with Pauline Pence. After a short visit here, they will leave for Estes Park, Colorado to attend the convention of the Delta Gamma sororities.

It was a pleasing sight to see smoke once more rolling from the smokestack of the Payette cannery and to fully realize that this institution was not compelled to move away for lack of acreage. They began the canning of peas Tuesday and will run on through the season.

Elmo Rotering and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Precht fished for trout on Manns creek Sunday.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The following items were taken from the Payette Enterprise dated June 19, 1924:

Mrs. A. C. Fenske returned last Thursday evening from Moscow, where she went the week previous as a delegate from the Business and Professional Womens club to attend the state convention of that organization.

As usual, for it happens every year, some of our young people just insist on bringing credit and honor to the old home town. This year, Harry Rhoades won his "spurs" at Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, carrying away with him the Silver Loving cup that is awarded annually by his fraternity to its member of the sophomore class with the best records in engineering.

The Idaho Power company will complete this week the work they have had underway for the past two months of changing the North Payette-Crystal lines from 4,000 to 11,000 volts.

While on his way to his Fruitland ranch Tuesday morning, Ira White was smashed into by a tourist, considerably damaging both machines.

The grade of music executed by the Payette county band last Thursday evening at the street concert, would pass muster in any city in the United States.

TEN YEARS AGO

The following items were taken from the Payette Independent dated June 21, 1934:

The Jobs Daughters conferred the majority degree upon the Misses Geraldine Wells, Margaret Luther and Evelyn Freeman at the meeting last Tuesday evening.

Daniel Buzzard, a long time resident of the Washoe district, was fatally injured in an automobile accident which occurred near the Paddock Valley Dam, Saturday about eleven o'clock. The automobile struck a bump in the road and turned over the embankment, entrapping Mr. Buzzard at the foot of the hill.

The pulmotor dance given last Saturday night in the Oregon Trail park at Weiser proved to be a big financial success. All of the reports were not in, Huntington and Ontario yet to report, but even without the funds from these cities, the amount accruing from the dance totalled $249.40. This sum to be used to purchase a pulmotor or similar equipment to be used in case of drowning, electric shock, suffocation and similar accidents.

Miss Mary Rose and Leo Palumbo returned Sunday evening from South Bend, Indiana, where they have been attending school for the past year. Leo has been attending Notre Dame and Mary Rose has been a student at St. Mary's Academy.

The following items were taken from the Payette Independent dated June 24, 1934:

J. T. Morey, superintendent of the Nebraska State Blind Institute, is spending a couple of weeks in Payette with Major L. V. Patch. Mr. Morey is an old acquaintance of Mr. Patch and the two together own a large ranch near Caldwell.

Captain Walsh of the United States army stationed at Walla Walla, Captain Duval of the state militia at Nampa, and Lt. Jeffries of the militia at Weiser, were in Payette the latter part of last week drilling Company I in guard mount.

The Malheur Land and Irrigation company, recently organized to carry out the Dead Ox Flat project, has been divided into two separate companies, one for the purpose of getting water on the land and the other for the purpose of colonizing it. The one for the latter purpose was officially organized Wednesday evening of last week under the name of Idaho-Oregon Colonization company.

This company will have its headquarters at Payette. The following officers and directors were elected: President, C. E. Brainard; vice president, Peter Pence; secretary, R. R. Haynes; treasurer, M. R. Albert.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM FRUITLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenberger were down from Caldwell last Thursday on business and visited with former neighbors and friends. A good crowd gathered at the Fruitland Cannery Monday night to witness the awarding of the War Food Administration Achievement A flag and pins. Grant Gardner was master of ceremonies. Emmet Schmidt, representative grower and president of the board received the flag, which was raised by two of our local service men, Sgt. Jimmie Frazier and Pfc. Delbert Hoop of the Marine Corps. Other brief speeches were made by Chester Strawn, representing the employees, Captain P. R. Hendricks of the Army and Mr. Wm. P. Rowley from the office of War Food Administration. Jay Stoner and the county band furnished patriotic music. Albert Mohler, Earl Secoy and other managers, were given applause of appreciation.

Sunday callers at the R. E. Hall home were Mrs. Lloyd Rosenberger and two children of Boise. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenberger at New Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Holt were traveling in California. Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCurdy of Payette stayed at the Guy Graham place last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Crawford and children Duna Dee and Wayne arrive diast Wednesday at their new home at the Methodist parsonage.

Dunna Dee and Wayne Crawford were Sunday dinner guests of Billy Watkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Carlson from Roswell spent Sunday at the F. M. Lancaster home.

Mrs. Ruth Cahill is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Stotler at their new farm home, the former A. M. Carpenter home.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By R. L. Datzell

The first century Christians were cautioned concerning the vital importance of being sound in the faith, of "speaking as the oracles of God speak," and "not go beyond the things written." "The things which ye have learned, and received; heard, and saw in me," said Paul, these things do and the God of peace shall be with you.

In the second chapter of the Acts, we get the history of the beginning of His church. The place was in Jerusalem. (Isa. 2:2-3; Isa. 42:12; Luke 24:47), the time, the first Pentecost after the crucifixion. This is the only church Christ established, and recommended no other. In fact, there is no salvation in any other. (Acts 4:12; Matt. 15:13). Only those who are guided by the Bible have a well-grounded hope of heaven, and are on the firm foundation, the word of God.

In his letter to the Romans, the apostle Paul said: "All the churches of Christ salute you." (Rom. 16:16). In the Bible you may read about the church at Corinth, where Paul speaks of it as the church of God. (1 Cor. 1:2). In Hebrews we find this statement: "To the general assembly and church of the first born." (Heb. 12:23). These and other references to the church of the New Testament must refer to Christ's one church for He said, "I will build My church."

Let us honor Christ by serving Him the one church He established, and follow His instructions as recorded in the New Testament. For therein glory is given Christ through all ages. This church has no creed by the Bible, binds no name on its members but Christ's—Acts 11:26; 1 Pet. 4:16.

Friends, we invite you to the services each Lord's Day and trust that you will investigate and compare the church to which you belong with the church of the New Testament. Attend the Church of Christ, Fruitland or Weiser.

HE'S OFF ON HIS FIFTY-FIFTH MISSION

There he goes again—out to pour more destruction on the Axis—once more to face the death of enemy fighters and flak!

He won't hesitate to go out on his fifty-sixth or his hundred and fifty-sixth mission. He knows he might not come back, but he keeps on going—giving more and more until the Hitler and

Tojo crews are ready to "call it quits."

This is only your fifth mission—and a mission which is mighty easy in comparison with the ones he makes every week.

Stay in the fight by welcoming the Victory Volunteers—at least double your Bond purchases and then keep on. Your buying means "bombs away" for the Axis!

Let's Go, America!

Give 'em everything you've got!

To the man in fighting clothes—those are fighting words which mean nothing can be spared in opposing the enemy's strength and strategy.

Our men on the battle lines on the ground, in the air and on the sea are putting everything they've got into the fight.

It remains for those of us at home to take up the cry as well! "Give 'em everything you've got!" Loan to the hilt! Buy more War Bonds than ever before — double the amount you bought in any previous War Loan. It's your way to fight side by side with the men and boys in uniform.

This is the biggest job we've ever had to do. We can't fail our fighting men as they plunge into the biggest and bloodiest struggle of all.
