

Three Teachers Resign Positions

Three teachers who had been engaged to teach here next fall resigned the past week according to W. C. Sorenson, Supt. of schools.

They were: Mrs. Virginia Patch, home-economics teacher in the high school who was forced to give up the position to take care of her mother who is ill; Glen Nutting, who taught at Ontario last year and was employed to be principal at the West Side school; and Miss Nell Stewart, fourth grade teacher at the East Side school to take other positions.

One new member of the school staff, Supt. Sorenson said came in the recent employment of Miss Mary Sharp as secretary-clerk to succeed Mrs. Elsie Cole who resigned some time ago.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses issued during the past week at the office of Mrs. Lillian Wilson, county clerk included: Robert D. Thomason, Cambridge and Donna J. Jeffries, Payette, July 10; Lyle James, New Plymouth and Jewell Woodmansee, Phoenix, Ariz., July 10; James L. Cole and Kathryn Burke both of New Plymouth, July 7; Paul G. Everett, Idaho City and Marion Wheat, Boise, July 5; Lloyd M. Yarborough and Harriet J. Winterowd both of Nyssa, July 3.

LOCAL FOLK SEE DEER NEAR CITY

Since the report several weeks ago that local people had seen deer near the city several others have called and told about seeing the animals.

David Grant said he saw one of the deer near his ranch, north of town last week and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Beeson reported they saw a buck deer near the airport Monday morning shortly after the eclipse of the sun.

Hospital Survey To Be Made In State

A complete and comprehensive survey of Idaho's present hospital facilities will be made by the Idaho Department of Public Health in cooperation with members of the Idaho Hospital Advisory committee, L. J. Peterson, administrative director of the State Health Department, announced Wednesday.

The survey will begin on a statewide basis the latter part of this month.

Advisory committee members, who will assist the survey team in local areas, and named by Governor Charles C. Gossett, include Dr. John J. Kaiser of Payette and men and women from practically every other city in the state.

COX RETURNS TO SERVICE

Sgt. Chelsey R. Cox left Saturday for San Antonio, Tex., for reassignment following a furlough. He had been overseas since the African invasion and has been in the armed forces since Feb., 1942. He was given a ten day extension of his furlough on account of the illness and death of his mother, Mrs. Florence Cox.

CAPTAIN POWELL ON WAY HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Powell received a telegram the 30th from their daughter, Captain Marie Powell that she had landed safely in the United States and on the 7th they received a telephone call from her from Camp Beale in which she said that she would be home the last of the month. Marie received her commission June 1.

WATSON WAS BUCKING JUDGE

In giving out the list of officials at the Race Meet and Rodeo last week the name of Tom Watson, as a bucking judge was inadvertently omitted.

Tom is an old hand at the business and still can ride a pretty tough twister.

In announcing the winners of the bucking contest it was also not clearly explained how the money was divided. The two top riders split first and second money, and the third rider took third money.

CLARE W. LEWIS DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Word was received here Monday that Clare W. Lewis, 45, of Ontario, Calif., died at a Los Angeles, Calif., hospital June 26, following a long illness.

Funeral services were held at the Richardson's Mortuary in Ontario, Cal., June 29.

Mr. Lewis is survived by his wife, Mrs. Frances Richardson Lewis, two sisters and a brother. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis resided in Payette before going to California about fifteen years ago.

Former Resident Dies In Illinois

Friends will be saddened to learn that Warner Dilton Glenn, 38, who with his family was a resident of this city for ten years prior to October, 1944, passed on at Springfield, Ill., June 27.

Mr. Glenn was born at Sharon Grove, Ky., Nov. 16, 1906. Besides the widow, the former Willa J. Head, he is survived by five children and one brother.

While in Payette he followed farming, which he was forced to give up on account of poor health. The family moved to Williamsville, Ill., from here and still maintain their residence there.

While in this locality Mr. Glenn was an active member of the Brethren church.

MATERNITY CARE FOR SERVICEMEN'S WIVES

Eight hundred fifty thousand wives and infants of servicemen have received care or are receiving care under the Emergency Maternity and Infant-Care Program, the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor announced. In May alone, 44,000 new cases were authorized for care. Through this program, which is administered by State Health Departments, under plans approved by the Children's Bureau, complete maternity care, including medical and hospital service is provided for wives of servicemen, and medical and hospital care is available for their infants until they are one year of age.

This care is provided for the wives and infants of enlisted men without cost to the men or their families and without regard to their financial status. Those eligible are wives and infants of men in the four lowest pay grades of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard and Marine Corps and of Army and Navy Aviation Cadets. Care is authorized without regard to race or place of residence. Applications for this care can be made through the physician accepting the case or through state or local health offices. Inquiries should be addressed to state departments of health.

Special Speaker At Christian Church

G. Fred Hoy will be the guest speaker at the Payette Church of Christ tonight at 8 p. m. Mr. Hoy was the guest speaker at the 46th Annual State Convention of the Christian Churches of South Idaho, at Burley. He is also the pastor of the First Christian church of Inglewood, Cal. This church gave to missions last year about $32,000. This is above and beyond the local budget. Mr. Hoy is also the chairman of the All Alaskan committee which is the clearing point for the missionary work that is being carried on in Alaska by the Christian churches.

This man has a stirring message. He is on fire for the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I consider him one of the rare treats of God as he comes to the Payette Church of Christ. God has blessed his ministry greatly. He has a message for the heart of every child of God. Franklin T. Gosser, pastor of the Payette Christian church said.

All five of the Christian churches of the Lower Snake River Valley are participating. George Whipple Jr., of the Nyssa Church of Christ will be leading the singing. Mrs. Joy Beem Moore of Ontario, Christian church will bring a special in song. Frank Gosser, the local pastor will be in charge of the service. There will be delegations from Weiser and Vale.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY HOLDS MEETING

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Church of Christ met at the home of Mrs. Lowell Coffey Thursday afternoon, July 3.

Mrs. Rose Pope was leader for the lesson.

Topics were given by Mrs. Ida Wells, Furley Miller and Mrs. Ray Bolling.

A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Pope presiding in the absence of the president. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

SGT. WRIGHT TO BE DISCHARGED

Sgt. LaVerne Wright left Tuesday night for Dow City, Iowa after spending a ten day furlough visiting at the Frank Steigerwalt home. He has been a member of the armed forces for four years; was attached to the 78th Field Artillery of the Hell on Wheels Btn that finished in Germany. He is to receive an honorable discharge soon.

CONSUMER PROSPECTS FOR WEARING APPAREL

To assure continued production of nine kinds of coats and overcoats for men, women and children, manufacturers will be granted priorities assistance in obtaining woolen knitted fabrics in the third and succeeding quarters, WPB said. The coats and overcoats for which priorities assistance will be granted are: Women's, Misses' and Juniors' coats; boys' finger tip coats; men's ulster and double breasted overcoats; and men's basic model overcoats.

A WPB order, effective in May, covering distribution of textiles to manufacturers is helping to bring back medium and lower-priced garments to dealers' shelves; by late summer, said Kenneth W. Marriner, director of WPB's Textile Bureau. Cloth allocation was made to provide for three civilian groups... children, workers and that group of adults whose annual earnings do not allow them to accumulate wardrobes.

Special consideration was given to children's garments over adult needs.

TO EXPAND VETERAN FACILITIES

With the number of veterans returning to civilian life constantly increasing, the U. S. Employment Service will expand its veterans programs and activities immediately to assure adequate and special service to veterans Paul V. McNutt, chairman of the War Manpower Commission, said. The special service to veterans includes a veterans employment representative in each state; veterans employment representative in each local USES office through the country, trained personnel to interview, counsel and refer veterans to jobs and to furnish veterans with information concerning other agencies set up to serve them. It will also speed up placement procedures to reduce the amount of time a veteran spends in the USES offices, insofar as possible USES personnel handling veterans' placement activities will be veterans themselves.

Tomato Plants
Tomato plants in a home garden produce an average of five pounds each, or five pints when home canned. A No. 2 can (approximately 3 1/2 pints) purchased at the store now takes 20 blue points. Snap beans, when home canned, will save 19 blue points a pint.

Avoid Slip
Have a strong bar on the wall beside the bathtub; grasping it will prevent many a slip.
