Sunflower Oil Dries

Oil from sunflower seed has drying properties which have been found useful in some types of paints. Increased plantings of sunflowers were made in Argentina and exports of the oil increased notably in 1942. Due to drought, the 1942-43 planting in Argentina was reduced from 1,875,000 acres to about 1,637,000 acres.

AS PER CHAPTER 17, TITLE 22
L. C. A. AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 235, 1939 SESSION LAWS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of County Commissioners at their regular session on March 6, 1944, did create the County of Payette, State of Idaho, and all lands therein as a weed extermination area and did name the following weeds as being noxious weeds, to-wit: Morning Glory, White Top, Russian Knap, Canadian Thistle, Puncture Weed, Perennial Ground Cherry, Leafy Spurge, Marshmallow, Quack Grass, Wilows, Bermuda Grass, Poison Oak, Knot Weed, Fan Weed, Cockle, Cow Cockle and Crows Foot.

All owners of property within the County of Payette, State of Idaho, are hereby directed to destroy or exterminate all such weeds within the County of Payette, State of Idaho, and to prevent such weeds from producing seeds within said area and all owners of property within such area are hereby directed and notified to destroy or control all such noxious weeds by cultivation or by chemical treatment or by other recognized procedure on or before June 1, 1944; and

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that if any owners of land within said area fail or refuse to destroy all of said weeds on or before said date, and in the manner herein prescribed, that the County Commissioners will then proceed, at once, to destroy all such noxious weeds that still remain growing in such area and to collect the cost of such destruction as a charge against said lands at the same time and in the same manner as general taxes—PROVIDED HOWEVER, That in case the owner, tenant or occupant of the land upon which such weed eradication is performed desires so to do his share of such costs and expenditures may be paid immediately in cash.

March 6, 1944.
