Have a "Coke" = Welcome back

... or giving a returned soldier a taste of home

To soldiers overseas, Coca-Cola is a reminder of home. To soldiers at home on furlough, "Coke" is part of the old familiar way of living. With frosty bottles of "Coke" on hand, offering a man in uniform a refreshing welcome is an easy matter. Have a "Coke" is always the hospitable thing to say. In many lands overseas, as in your own living room, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes - has become a happy symbol of hospitality.
