THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By R. L. Dalzell

The Ten Commandments... Are They Binding Today?

Realizing that it is taught by some that the Ten Commandments are binding upon Christians today, I would have you to lay aside man's teaching on this subject and turn with me to the Word of God. These were first given at Mount Sinai (Ex. 20) and he gave unto Moses written with the finger of God"—Ex. 31:18. In Jer. 31:31-32

God said: "Behold the days come... that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt." It is clearly stated that the covenant, the ten commandments, was to be broken and a new one made. In Zech. 11:10-13 God prophesies that He will break His covenant in the day that He is sold for thirty pieces of silver. Matt. 27:3-10 gives the fulfillment of that.

Heb. 8:6-13 in simple language says that a new, "a better covenant" was established upon better promises and in the last verse "he hath made the first old... and to vanish away." In Gal. 4:21-31 Paul pictures the old and new covenant: "these women are two covenants: one from Mount Sinai, bearing children unto bondage, which is Hagar." Verse 30—"Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son..." The law at Sinai is cast out, therefore not binding upon Christians today.

"The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ"—Jno. 1:17. "For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death"—Rom. 8:2. "But ye are led by the Spirit, YE ARE NOT UNDER THE LAW"—Gal. 5:18. "HE TOOK AWAY THE FIRST, THAT HE MIGHT ESTABLISH THE SECOND"—Heb. 10:9. Would you like to have a free booklet on this subject? If so, send me your name and address, to Box 185, Weiser, and I'll gladly forward one to you. Attend the Church of Christ in Fruitland or in Weiser.

"I hope to return soon. You can't realize how much I miss the old outfit even if it is in combat and they kill men right and left. Yes, I am going back and the first Jerry I get is going to be for Bob. I hate those Jerries. I know a fellow and, I am very sorry to say it, came through one day after he was killed. He would have made a fine officer because he was such a fine soldier.

"Being fraternity brothers, Bob and I would sit around when we had time and talk about our college days.

"Bob led a clean life overseas, and his philosophy of life was wonderful.

"All of the boys in Bob's section send their regrets, and thank you for your thoughtfulness of the packages. We all think it is a grand gesture.

"Bob did find out that his Mother died, and her loss hurt him deeply.

From Pfc. John L. Hansen is the following:

"Well it's a while since I have written to you so thought it was time to drop a line. I just got a letter from Captain Lauderdale. He was hit Oct. 27 and is now in a hospital here too. He was our platoon officer. Bob has most likely talked about him in his letters. Lots of the boys have been hit and killed while I was gone. Guess it was really rough up there.

"I hope to return soon. You can't realize how much I miss the old outfit even if it is in combat and they kill men right and left. Yes, I am going back and the first Jerry I get is going to be for Bob. I hate those Jerries. I know a fellow

"As you know, he was awarded the Oak Leaf Cluster to the Silver Star for a certain action in France. I was with him at that time, and I know what a great job he did. It is an axiom in the company that everytime he went into action he deserved a medal.

"I recommended him for a Battlefield Promotion to 2nd Lieutenant.
