

BRIEF ITEMS from Neighboring Towns

WEISER

Members of the Ministerial association took issue with the report of the February meeting of the association given in this paper by Rev. F. J. Cannon, secretary, last week. Cannon reported that the group was seeking a candidate to oppose Frank Gwilliams in the coming election for mayor. Other ministers of the group objected to the statement, saying that the subject had never been discussed by them.—Signal.

Nick Watkins, new owner of the building in which the Cheadle drug store is located, stated that there would be no changes immediately.—Signal.

EMMETT

Gem county sent 11 more men to the induction center at Salt Lake City Sunday afternoon. The February quota was for 22 men but only half that number were sent.—Index.

A "test" lawsuit attracting nation wide attention, in which a retired army major is suing the Ford Motor Company for continuance of a contract he held with them as a dealer prior to his entrance into the military service, may come to trial in Boise at an early date. The complainant is Major A. E. Stockton.—Index.

VALE

The annual report of 1944 freight shipments from the local railway station shows a total of 2395 carloads of produce shipped from Vale during the past year, an increase of 152 cars over the previous year and 515 more carloads than were exported in 1942.—Enterprise.

ONTARIO

The Labor Day week end was designated by the county fair board as the time for the annual Malheur county fair again this year will be limited to 4-H club and Future Farmers exhibits.—Argus.

REPAIR FARM MACHINERY EARLY

Man power shortages in factories and increased demands for direct war production are causing a lag in farm machinery production, and throwing the spotlight once again on "share, care and repair" programs on every one of the nation's farms. Machinery dealers at their annual gathering in Boise several weeks ago observed that Idaho that every one can be served in one day each week he said. Grinder will also be in operation that day each week.

Livestock Rations
Potatoes in livestock rations are generally comparable in feeding value to good corn silage.

GET HIGHER FEEDING VALUE BY USING WATKINS IMPROVED MINERAL COMPOUNDS

Save Feed!

Cut Production Costs!

Increase Profits!

Because of the higher quality of the raw ingredients used in the manufacture of Watkins Minerals, you get higher feeding value from them, just as you get a higher value in a 30 per cent protein feed than in an 18 per cent protein feed.

You can buy a cheaper mineral mixture, but it is more expensive in the long run. Usually, if you refer to the feeding instructions you will find a recommendation to feed three to four times the amount required when you feed Watkins Minerals.

Dollar for dollar, Watkins Minerals will make as much or more for you than any other mineral on the market. When you add Watkins Mineral Compounds to properly balanced rations, they save feed, cut production costs and speed up the production of pork, beef, milk, eggs and wool. They help to build up and keep up the resistance of the livestock. That cuts your losses from disease.

It's not how quick your stock goes to market nor how they look that counts—it's how much did it cost you to produce what you sell. Regardless of the price of feed or the market prices you get, you can make more profit if you feed Watkins Mineral Compounds.

Give Watkins Minerals a fair trial and like thousands of others, you will be satisfied that they save feed, speed production and increase your profits.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

America Has its Portrait Painted

Dan Mascon's cousin, an honest-to-goodness artist, came to our town. And when he heard we were having a weenie roast, he asked could he come and bring his paints.

After he got through working on his canvas... he had as nice a picture of us enjoying ourselves as you could ask for... complete to the last little detail... from Molly Burtie's dimples to the foam on Ed Carey's glass of beer.

"I'm calling it a portrait of America," Dan's cousin says.

And from where I sit, he couldn't have a better title. Whether it's a weenie roast in our town or a square dance on a Wisconsin farm, it's all a part of America—a part of our neighborliness, our love of fun and pleasant living.

Because our right to enjoy a temperate beverage like beer is a part of our American heritage of personal freedom.

Joe Marsh
