BYPD RALLY AT FRUITLAND

The BYPD District Rally brought 75 young people together Saturday and Sunday. The meetings began at 11 o'clock when Helen Noel who had attended the Regional Conference at LaVerne, Calif., gave her report. The Rev. Truman Northrup of Boise Valley church spoke and Kenneth Brown, editor of the BYPD Paper, The Challenger, reported. A noon dinner was served at the firehouse. Following lunch, supervised recreation was enjoyed until 2:30. A business meeting of the seven different churches was held. At 7 o'clock a banquet was served, the theme of which was "United We Serve," carried out in the table decorations by models of the different churches joined by cut-out figures of boys and girls.

Paul Harris of Emmett was toastmaster. June Waterhouse of Nampa played a violin solo. Eileen Perigo gave a reading followed by a mixed trio from Weiser, and a short skit by the Payette group. Two burning ceremonies closed the evening. Sunday morning regular services were held and a musical program made up of numbers by the youth from the various churches concluded the rally.
