Grosbeaks Have Picnic On Hawthorne Tree At Post Office

Spring has undoubtedly arrived here despite the cold March winds of the past week. At least the Canadian Grosbeaks think so, because they have been gathering in increasing numbers on their annual pilgrimage to the north on the Hawthorne trees on the West Side of the Payette post office building.

Monday morning here were a dozen or more in one of the trees chattering and filling themselves up on the dried berries which still cling to the tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Heap had a phone call from their son, Gilbert.

Howard J. Ramey, W. T. 2-c is reported to be missing in action. He is the son of Till Ramey of Nampa and a former resident of Fruitland.

Frank Zimmerman, assistant postmaster and a nature lover, reported that the Grosbeaks are among the first birds that fly to the north in large flocks and they always visit the post office here to partake of the Hawthorne berries.

A little later, in fact any day now, the Grosbeaks will be replaced by wild canaries on their annual northward flight.

Several of the Guernsey breeders have their entries for the Purebred Sale blanketed and hope to have them in tip-top show trim by the first of May. This purebred sale will be held May first at Boise and will afford new breeders of Guernsey cattle a chance to, secure animals of the highest quality.

Game Dept. Offers Bounty On Magpies

Offers of a bounty of four cents each on magpie heads is offered in an advertisement in this issue.

Walter Steiniker, secretary of the Payette County Rod & Gun club said Monday morning that the heads should be taken to the Peterson Furniture company to secure the bounty payment.

The campaign against magpies, deadly enemy of game bird nests is being sponsored by the local club. Funds for payment of the bounties are furnished by the Idaho Fish and Game department.

In previous years Steiniker said, many thousands of magpie heads have been brought in by youngsters in the district, and he expressed the hope that there would be extra effort on the campaign this year, as the magpies seem to be increasing in numbers.

How to Make Hot Cross Buns

HOT CROSS BUNS

6 to 8 1/2 cups all-purpose flour 1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon 1/2 cup softened butter or margarine
1 cup milk 1 cup seedless raisins
1 cake fresh yeast 1/2 cup currants

Sift and measure flour and salt again with spices. Heat milk until bubbles form around edge; add water and cool to lukewarm. Add crumbled yeast, sugar and salt, stirring until yeast is dissolved; add beaten egg, then flour mixture all at once. Add butter or margarine, raisins and currants and work until dough leaves side of bowl. Turn out on lightly floured board, knead gently until smooth, about 3 minutes. Place dough in greased bowl, cover with damp cloth. Let rise in warm place until double in bulk, about 2 hours. Remove from bowl, onto lightly floured board. Shape into ball, place on floured board, divide into four portions; shape each into ball, cover with damp cloth, and let stand 15 minutes. Divide each ball into 8 small ones; place on greased baking sheet 2 inches apart; cover and let rise until almost double in bulk. Brush with egg wash (1 egg yolk beaten with 3 tablespoons water); cut shallow crosses with scissors on top of each roll. Bake 5 minutes in moderately hot oven (425° F.); reduce to moderate oven (350° F.); and bake 15 to 20 minutes longer, or until done. When almost cold, mark crosses with thin icing made of powdered sugar and just enough cream to spread easily. Makes 32 buns.
