THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By Jack Free

THE FIRST DAY OF THE WEEK

There is much said at this day and time as to what day of the week Christians should assemble upon, to worship God. I wish in these few lines to set forth a reason or two as to why I believe "Christians should assemble upon the first day of the week." First, because the seventh day sabbath was abolished when Jesus died on Calvary's cross. (Col. 2:14). As this was a day of rest under the old Jewish economy, and the Jews were commanded to keep it, the question comes, did Jesus or his authorized agents, the Apostles, institute another day in its stead?

The early Christians came together for the purpose of worshipping in a body or assembly. (1 Cor. 11:18). Here they came together "in the church" as he says in verse 12. "It is not possible to eat the Lord's Supper," verse 20. These verses with verse 33 which says "Wherefore my brethren when ye come together to eat," show without a doubt that the very purpose for their coming together was to "eat the Lord's Supper."

Now can we find a definite day for this to be done? Let us see Acts 20:7. "And the disciples came together upon the first day of the week to break bread." Regardless of all the arguments, dodging and fixing that can be done, this fact remains, "The purpose of the coming together was to eat the Lord's supper—Break Bread—and that was on the first day of the week."

So we invite you on the first day of the week, the Lord's day, to assemble with us at the Fruitland Church of Christ. We study God's Word, there is preaching, and like the disciples of old we meet on this day to "eat the Lord's supper." Come be with us.

Jack Free, evangelist.

139 S. W. Second St. Ontario, Ore., preaches Sunday morning on the theme: "Only a True Christian Prayer Receives a Favorable Hearing From God." Hear this inspiring message! In these days of trouble, woe and hardship, Pastor Koehlinger urges, we should one and all, take refuge in the Lord's House and there pray diligently and fervently to God in heaven.
