

Former Payette Baptist Minister
Kills Two Bear In Washington

Present day preachers have come a long way. At least they are not like the preacher in the song popular some 40 years ago which told about a preacher, going hunting, being treed by a bear and finally praying, "Oh Lord, if you can't help me, please don't help that bear."

Proof of the foregoing statement comes in an interesting letter this week from the Rev. C. M. Strong, formerly pastor of the Baptist church here and now in charge of the Baptist church at Chehalis, Wn.

He said in part:

"I took a few days off last week and went up into the mountains with some old friends of mine. They invited me to go bear hunting and believe it or not, I killed two bear. How's that for a bear story?"

He stated further: "We are still doing double duty in the church and training school. Things are growing in our church work and we are enjoying the work. It is probable that I will assume responsibility of the principalship of the school along with the chaplaincy. In that case I will have an assistant pastor."

"Charles (his son) is in the University of Minnesota Medical school. He was graduated from Willamette University June 23 and had to report at Minneapolis (under a Navy training program) June 28."

Mrs. Ada Bertleson went to McCall Monday to spend a week with her daughter, Mrs. Della Hydner. When she returns she will be accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Merle Cochrane and children of Pendleton, Ore., who are visiting with Mrs. Hydner.

Earl Farber and Harry Leedy were Baker business visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Stoner and Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Albers spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Stoner's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lyonsmith and enjoyed fishing at Meadows.

Mrs. Emma Anderson has received word that her daughter, Edna Anderson, has been promoted from Storekeeper third class to Storekeeper second class. She is stationed at the Naval Supply Depot at Oakland, Calif.

Mrs. Darrell Smith and Mrs. Gould Fay spent Monday in Boise.

Misses Hazel Dorothy and Gerrie Cockerum, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thistle and Miss Lois Beauford spent Sunday at Payette Lakes and they report the weather there is really good for sunbathing.
