

Wake Island Prisoner Returns

Last Tuesday was a very happy day for the relatives of Clifton M. Edwards upon his arrival at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Edwards at 418 N. 6th st. after being a prisoner since the fall of Wake Island, where he was on construction work. The relatives who greeted his homecoming were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hallman and family of Baker, Ore., Mrs. G. H. Kirk, Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lanaltz of Fruitland and Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Edwards.

Legion Plans Armistice Dinner

John Webster Rhoads Post No. 33, American Legion, will have a pot luck dinner and dance at the Payette high school building, Monday evening, November 12th, for veterans of all wars and their families. Special invitations are being extended to men who served in the First Idaho Infantry on the Mexican border and during World War I, and to those who served in Battery C, 148th Field Artillery, during World War II. A complete program will be announced at a later date.

Delegates Return From Grand Lodge

Payette delegates to the Odd Fellows Grand Lodge and state Rebekah Assembly meetings in Lewiston returned home last Thursday evening reporting most successful conventions of the two orders.

The 1946 meetings of the order, they said will be held in Boise. Those attending from Payette included: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steinliker, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hallock, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Rader, Clarence Miller, Mrs. Ed Patton, Mrs. Ed Young and Miss Pauline Howerton.

Streeter C. Stroup Buried Wednesday

Streeter Stroup, well known resident of Payette, passed away at the Holy Rosary hospital in Ontario, Mr. Stroup recently had an operation from which he was apparently recovering satisfactorily until Friday of last week when he had a heart attack which resulted in his death the following day. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, following services which were held at the Landon Funeral home with the Rev. Paul Felt-house officiating. Burial was made in the Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Stroup grew up on the place of his birth in Washoe. For a time he worked for the Home Comfort Range company of St. Louis, Mo. in Oregon, Washington and California. The company furnished him with a mule team which he used to haul the ranges to the homes in the more isolated sections. He afterward worked as a bridge builder in these same states and in 1916 he returned to the family homestead at Washoe, where he resided up until the time of his death.

Streeter Courtney Stroup is a native of Payette county, was born in Washoe, Oct. 2, 1887 and spent his entire life on the farm his parents homesteaded. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stroup who came to Payette in 1873. Mr. Stroup was married Nov. 11, 1916 to Maud May McClure of Caldwell. His wife and two children preceded him in death. Mr. Stroup's living relatives are one son John J. Stroup of Washoe, three daughters, Lois Johnson of Parma, Idaho, Beth Johnson who was living with her father while her husband is serving overseas, Amabel Fuller, of Jerome, two sisters, Jessie Moore of Ontario, Ore., and Alta Coughanour of Payette, one brother, Guy of Washoe.

For many years he was employed as county supervisor.

Pioneer Of West Dies At Fruitland

Mrs. Jennie Louise Sullens, Fruitland, passed away at her home Oct. 18, 1945 at the age of 78 years. She was born at Jersey City, New Jersey, Aug. 27, 1867. She came west at the age of ten by ox team with her parents and stayed at Old Port Boise. Her father was a photographer and took the old tin type pictures.

She was married to Nelson G. Sullens at Weiser Jan. 4, 1885. They moved to Ironsides, Oregon and later in 1893 the family came to a homestead between Ontario and Vale where they lived until 1927. That year they moved to Fruitland where they have since lived. Her husband preceded her in death June 8, 1936. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Henry Barker, Payette, three sons, Geo. M. Sullens of Boise, Clarence Sullens of Fruitland, Thomas N. Sullens of Los Angeles, seven grandchildren, three sisters, two brothers and two great-grandchildren.

Services were held at the Fruitland M. E. church Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. J. D. Crawford officiating. Interment was in Parkview cemetery at New Plymouth.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISIT PAYETTE

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Davis of Portland, were arrivals in the city on Friday and spent several days visiting with local friends. They have been in Portland for four years where Mr. Davis has been employed as a carpenter. Recently they took a trip through Oregon and California looking for a location and Mr. Davis states that they have come to the conclusion that they like the Payette Valley the best of any place they saw and plan eventually on returning here to take up their permanent residence.

SGT. MEYERS VISITS

Sgt. and Mrs. Louie Meyers of Ontario, Cal., spent this week here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Meyers and family and in Emmett with her parents. Sgt. Meyers leaves Thursday morning for Topeka, Kans., from where he will be sent overseas.
